CONCERT RAISES £283 FOR DEFIBRILLATOR FUND

56 people participated in 'a little bit of nonsense' with Bill McKinnon on Friday evening, 4th April. Bill and his musical partner Anne entertained an appreciative audience in St Peter's Church. All proceeds were donated to the defibrillator fund, the total of which reached a staggering £283 !!!! (after costs)

None of this would have been possible without the organisation of Ruth Gerring who took it upon herself to mastermind the whole event. Our grateful thanks to her and her helpers who volunteered their assistance, to make the evening so special, and to raise such an impressive amount of cash for this worthy cause.

Thanks also to all those who contributed not only in ticket sales, but separate donations, for raffle prizes and refreshment costs.

A great evening was had by all and Bill said he'd be happy to return to Charney at some time in the future.
